

Deacon Dan Giblin C.R.S. is an ordained Deacon in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. After his ordination in 2011 he was assigned to St. Ann's Parish in Phoenixville, where he continues to serve today.

Deacon Giblin has been a member of the Matt Talbot Movement (#9) since 1987. Active member of a recovery fellowship since 1984, and founding member of the Daylesford Group at the Abbey – Daylesford PA. Deacon Giblin is an experienced public speaker and a published author. He is employed as a Spiritual Advisor at St. John Vianney Center in Downingtown, PA. After attending Villanova University's College of Professional Studies program in Alcohol & Drug counseling he was certified by the state of Pennsylvania as a Certified Recovery Specialist.